

DAY ONE PROGRAMME – WEDNESDAY 18 APRIL 2012
BRISTOL MARRIOTT, BRISTOL, UK

SECURE INFORMATION SHARING FOR TEAM DEFENCE

08.30 – 09.30 - REFRESHMENTS &amp; DISPLAYS
09.30	WELCOME ADDRESS Alexander Giles, CEO, The Shephard Group
09.35	OBJECTIVES AND AGENDA Steve Shepherd, Executive Director, UKCeB - Introduction to the Joint Information Group Improvement Strategy
09.45	BUSINESS CONTEXTS MoD perspectives on the development of the Defence logistic enterprise Major General Ian Copeland, Director Joint Support Chain, Defence Equipment & Support, UK Ministry of Defence and MOD Co-Chair of Joint Information Group
10:05	The View from CC&amp;II Air Commodore Tony Boyle, Cap CCII NCA, UK MOD
10:25	Logistics Policy and implications for Industry Richard Hamber, ACDS Log Ops
10:40	Discussion and Questions
11:00 – 11:25 – REFRESHMENTS &amp; DISPLAYS
11:25	Secure Information Sharing in Defence Brigadier Mark Baines CIO-J6 & Chairman of the Secure Information Sharing Steering Group
PANEL 1 – SECURE INFORMATION SHARING Scope: To present the work, plans and achievements of the Secure Information Sharing Programme, informing and exploiting TSCP deliverables particularly for supply chain and SME benefits. To explain the role and actions of the SIS Programme Group Chairman: Richard Skedd , Industry Chair of the UKCeB CIWG & BAE Systems, IT Strategy Manager
11:50	TSCP Nominee Colin Nash, Deep Secure, Business Development Manager - SEEOTI Major David Butt, CIO-J6-Ops, UK MOD Chris Rowley, Babcock, Head of Information and Knowledge Management & Andy Whatman, Capgemini, DCP Engagement Manager – CWEs for SMEs Mike Glendinning, Reply - Enterprise Interoperability Strategy and Industry Integration
12:40 – 14.00 - LUNCH &amp; DISPLAYS
14:00	Key Note: Bruce Wynn OBE - Freelance Consultant in Informatics & Cyber across the Defence, Intelligence, Operational and National Security domains. ‘Boris the Bad Guy’ Exploration of cyber-attacks on government systems, with demonstration of techniques and models
PANEL 2 – VALUE CHAIN ANALYSIS The panel will explore how a Team Defence value chain analysis can help to identify key information requirements at decision points Chairman: Angus Ward, Partner, Bearing Point
14:30	Greg Roberts , Thales, Managing Director, Sue Tann , Managing Director, Miragroup , Kevin Parker , SVP & Chief Evangelist Serena Software, Mike Pickering Head of Technology Insertion Selex Galileo
Ceremony of Key Exchange between UK MOD and Certipath for Cross-certification of Trust Bridges
16:00	Jeff Pete’ (Boeing DUK) - Delivery of the Log NEC Programme IS Transformation
16:30 - 17:30 DRINKS RECEPTION SPONSORED BY

DAY TWO PROGRAMME –THURSDAY 19 APRIL 2012
CITY MARRIOTT, BRISTOL, UK

SECURE INFORMATION SHARING FOR TEAM DEFENCE

08.00 – 09.00 - REFRESHMENTS & DISPLAYS

09.00	OPENING REMARKS Steve Shepherd, Executive Director, UKCeB
-------	---

PANEL 3 – IMPROVING BUSINESS PERFORMANCE THROUGH BETTER DATA
Chairman: Dr Timothy King, LSC Group
 Scope: The panel will explore the means by which to treat data quality with strategic, systemic approaches. In the case of Defence, operational effectiveness is the ultimate objective and, thus, should be the focus when attempting to assess the impact of poor data and identify priorities for introducing improvements to the enterprise.

09:05	Julian Schwarzenbach* , Data and Process Advantage Limited, Dick Dixon , MOD ACDS Log Ops,C1 Information Policy Jeremy Carter , BAE Systems, Technical Lead, Tornado Configuration Recovery + rep from Cambridge University (*An independent consultant who has worked with data quality in the rail industry and is Chair of the British Computer Society Data Management Specialist Group)
-------	---

KEY NOTES

10:20	Howard Mason , BAE Systems, Information Standards Officer, The Drive for Coherent Global Standards
10:35	Nigel Whitehead , Chairman UKCeB and Group Managing Director, Programmes and Support, BAE Systems

11.00 – 11:30 – REFRESHMENTS

PANEL 4 – HOW TO SUCCEED IN DEFENCE IT PROJECTS
Chairman: Roly McTeague, Boeing Defence UK
 Scope: To examine exemplars of IT Projects, good practices and lessons learnt.

11:30	Stuart Combes – Principal Technical Scrutineer for Communication & Information Systems, MoD Investment Approvals Committee Ross Campbell – Value for Money Director for Defence, National Audit Office Nicholas Gleich – Major Projects Authority (formerly OGC), Cabinet Office Tbc – speaker from industry
-------	--

SHOWCASE OF GOOD PRACTICE

12:20	Dick Whittington , Mood International, Chief Strategy Officer Harry Watson , IFS Defence, Business Unit Director TM Forum – Christy Coffey to nominate – Metrics for Security Mgt Catalyst Project led by Martin Huddleston at DSTL Serena Software – Amanda Purssey to nominate – OEM
-------	---

13:05 – 14.30 – LUNCH SPONSORED BY

14:30	Paul Johnson – Log NEC Green Box Industry Executive - Restating the Obvious - The human aspects in Information Systems
-------	---

15:00	A DEBATE – EXPLOITING LOG NEC IS Formal, but light-hearted debate with a hypothesis and speakers for and against the motions. Chair: TBD “Industry is not prepared to take full advantage of the Log NEC IS Programme deliverables Industry has been working closely with MOD Log NEC to agree common architectures underpinned by global standards. The Log NEC Programme has a funded delivery programme to improve Logistics IS and the supply of Quality data to decision makers. Is Industry now prepared to take advantage of this transformational work?” For: Colonel David Scouler, Secunder: Against: Mike Pickering Head of Technology Insertion Selex Galileo Chris Rowley?, Babcock, Head of Information and Knowledge Management Graham Curtis , BAE Systems, UK Information Management & Technology ( IM&T) Director Dr Mike Day, Rolls-Royce
-------	---

15.45 CONFERENCE CLOSE

