Call for papers

UV Europe 2010 will provide delegates, speakers and other attendees with unrivalled networking opportunities. Nowhere else will you be able to gain access to figures in Europe's UV industry than at UV Europe 2010.

Attending UV Europe 2010 will enable you to discover the developments taking place across this market, and identify the issues involved with procurement, training, operations and technology. UV Europe 2010 will offer an unrivalled chance to meet suppliers and manufacturers, and develop new business contacts, leads and opportunities.

We are particularly interested in papers covering the following:

- Technology: Sensors, AI, Weapons etc
- Plans and Policy
- Regulation

For air, ground and marine unmanned systems

If you would like to submit a paper for consideration, please email uve@shephard.co.uk

Deadlines for submission: 31 January 2010

Please note: Presentations must be a maximum of 20 minutes

I am interested in submitting a paper.
