

PLATH

Press release

6 September 2010

PLATH GmbH has partnered with the Shephard Group, to provide an additional COMINT seminar at the 16th annual Shephard/AOC Electronic Warfare conference, to be held in May 2011, Berlin, Germany.

PLATH GmbH is leader of the PLATH Group, which incorporates German companies Procitec GmbH, Innosystec GmbH and PLATH EFT GmbH for providing EW and communications intelligence solutions, from sensors to knowledge.

Based on longstanding experience and following its vision "shaping the future of intelligence", PLATH will back up the COMINT day/track, which will be the first international event specialising on COMINT - and has formed this partnership with the Shephard Group to make this possible.

Michael Niewöhner, Director Proposals & Marketing at PLATH GmbH said "This will be the starting point of a longstanding relation to our new partner Shephard and we are convinced, that this event will attract high attention for military intelligence and secret services."

Alexander Giles, CEO of the Shephard Group said "We are delighted to have this opportunity to partner with PLATH on this important new expansion of the Shephard/AOC EW conference. We are constantly seeking ways of enhancing our events and this partnership is a clear demonstration of that commitment."
